INFORMED OF NOMINATION

SENATOR FAIRBANKS NOTIFIED BY COMMITTEE

Told of Nomination for Vice President by Republican National Convention — Speech Delivered by the Nominee.

Indianapolis, Aug. 3.—Senator Charles W. Fairbanks was today formally notified of his nomination for vice president by the Republican national convention. The notification address was made by Elihu Root, ex-secretary of war. The exercises were held on the veranda of Fairbanks' beautiful home in the presence of 6,000 people, including the notification committee, governors and other state officers of Indiana, Republican candidates for state offices, Indiana Republican congressional delegation, Indiana delegates and alternates to the national convention, state central committee, Republican editorial association and several thousand of the senator's friends, neighbors and political supporters. The house was elaborately decorated and the day one of the most beautiful of the year.

Members of the notification committee began arriving on early trains and shortly after noon left the English hotel for the senator's home. Senator and Mrs. Fairbanks received the committee and especially invited guests and with little delay Root and Fairbanks led the way to the veranda, where seats were arranged for all. Enthusiastic greeting was accorded the two speakers.

Fairbanks was given an ovation as he arose to accept the nomination. He said: "Mr. Root and Gentlemen of the Committee: I thank you for the very generous terms in which you have conveyed the official notification of my nomination for vice president of the United States. The unsolicited and unanimous nomination by the Republican party is a call to duty which I am pleased to obey."

I accept the commission which you bring with a profound sense of the dignity and responsibilities of the exalted position for which I have been nominated. My utmost endeavor will be to discharge in full measure the trust, if the action of the convention shall meet the approval of the American people.

The platform adopted by the convention is an explicit and emphatic declaration of the principles of our party which have brought great honor and prosperity to our common country, and which, if continued, will bring us like blessings in the future. The monetary policy of the platform, which have been so forcibly renounced here at the very foundation of our industrial life and are essential to the fullest development of our national strength. They give stability to our manufactures and commerce and if impaired or overthrown there would inevitably ensue a period of industrial depression, to the serious injury of the vast interests of both labor and capital.

The Republican party since it preserved the integrity of the republic and gave freedom to the oppressed never receded in more important service to the country than when it established the gold standard. Under it we have increased our currency supply sufficiently to meet the normal requirements of business, without gratifying that the convention made frank and explicit declaration of the inflexible purpose of the party to maintain the gold standard. It is essential not only that the standard should be as good as gold, but that the world, but that the people should have the assurance that it will be so maintained.

The enemies of sound money were powerful enough to suppress mention of the gold standard in the platform, lately adopted by the Democratic national convention. The leader of Democracy in two great national campaigns has declared since the adjournment of the convention that as soon as the election is over he will undertake to organize the forces within the Democratic party for the next national campaign, and to the end of vanquishing the radical policies for which his element of the party stands. He frankly says that the money question is for the present in abeyance. In view of these palpable facts, it is not surprising that he should abandon our vigilance in safeguarding the integrity of our money system. We must have not only a president who is unalterably committed to the gold standard, but both houses of Congress in entire record with him upon the subject.

In congress and not with the president rests the supreme power to determine the standard of our money. Though the chief executive should oppose the congress, acting within its independent constitutional authority, could at any time overthrow or change the monetary standard.

The wisdom of our protective policy finds complete justification in the industrial development of the country. This policy has become a most vital part of our industrial system and must be maintained unimpaired. Uncertainty under conditions make changes in schedules desirable their modification can be safely entrusted to the Republican party. If they are to be changed by the enemies of the system, along free trade lines, uncertainty would take the place of certainty, and a reaction would surely follow to the injury of the wage earners and all who are now profitably employed. Uncertainty underlines confidence and loss of confidence breeds confusion and distress in commercial affairs.

The convention was wise not only in its enunciation of party policies, but in its nomination of a candidate for the presidency. During the last three years President Roosevelt has been confronted with large and serious questions. These he has met and solved with high wisdom and courage. The charges made against him in the Democratic platform find an irrefutable answer in his splendid administration, never surpassed in all the history of the republic and never equaled by the party who seeks to discredit it.

We have an ample record of deeds done, of beneficial things accomplished in the public interest. The vast business of the government has been well administered. The laws have been enforced fearlessly and impartially. The treasury has been adequately supplied with revenue and the financial credit of the government was never better. Our foreign trade balance continues to increase our national wealth. We have adopted an irrigation policy which will build homes in the arid regions of the west. The Panama canal, the hope of centuries, is in course of construction under the sole protection of the American flag.

We have peace and great prosperity at home and are upon terms of good neighborhood to the entire world. These conditions constitute the strongest possible assurance for the future.

Later I shall avail myself of a favorable opportunity to submit to you, and through you to my fellow citizens, a fuller expression of my views concerning the question now in issue.

Permit me again to thank you and to express the belief that we may confidently expect our cause to the candid and patriotic judgment of our countrymen.

As Fairbanks concluded there were cordial greetings and invited guests were escorted to large tents on the lawn, where luncheon was served, while the general public was given light refreshments in the house.

New York, Aug. 3.—Representative Hepburn of Iowa was at Republican congressional headquarters to day and arrangements were made for him to make quite a number of speeches during the campaign. Hepburn and Bourke Cockran had a warm debate in the house just before congress adjourned and the Iowa man desires to continue the contest on the stump.

TEAMSTERS IN MEAT STRIKE

THREATEN ICE SUPPLY OF RETAILERS.

Residents of Chicago Will Face Great Shortage of Meat if the Union Is Successful—Packers Still Claim Gains.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—The threatened spread of the stock yards strike to outside industries came to night when an order was issued by the teamsters' union prohibiting drivers of ice wagons making deliveries to retail merchants who since the packing house teamsters went on a strike have been hauling meat from the yards in their own wagons. As the refrigerators in the meat markets do not hold enough ice to last longer than forty-eight hours, if the order cutting off the supply of ice can be enforced, it means a majority of the people of Chicago will be compelled to live on short rations so far as meat is concerned. The teamsters' union appointed pickets to watch the meat markets all over the city and these men have been instructed to see that the boycott is carried out to the limit.

Outside of this decision to extend the strike to ice men, there was little change over yesterday in the situation at the stock yards. With their new employees and those who have deserted the unions the packers managed to dispose of fully fifty per cent as much work as they do under normal conditions.

While admitting the packers are doing considerable business strike leaders declare employers are losing money on every animal slaughtered, as unskilled employees waste all by-products. It is on this waste the strikers base their hopes for final success, arguing that it is only a matter of time until the employers will become tired of losing money and will eventually make overtures for a settlement.

LIVELY TIME AT STOCK YARDS.

In a riot at the stock yards to night two policemen were injured and twenty-eight men arrested after having been beaten into submission. The trouble started when five strike breakers started to board a car to go to their homes. Despite signals of the strike breakers the motormen on twelve cars refused to stop and a crowd standing near by seeing a good opportunity to get revenge on the non-union men, began hurling stones at them. Two policemen who were guarding the entrance went to the assistance of the non-union men, but the rioters by this time had grown in numbers so rapidly that fully a thousand angry men were trying to get at the strike breakers. Reinforcements were summoned and a charge was made on the rioters. The crowd was armed with bricks and stones and when the policemen started forward every man who could find room enough threw a brick. Two policemen dropped in their tracks, having been hit on the head. One, Patrick Ryan, had his skull fractured. The other policeman was not so seriously hurt. Another attack was made on the crowd and fully fifty rioters were beaten to the pavement before the mob showed any signs of scattering. As soon as the policemen saw they had the mob on the run they turned their attention to those lying on the ground and arrested twenty-eight of them before they could scramble to their feet and get away.

Stock yards packers announced to day they would attempt to import no more unskilled laborers and in the future would take on only a few skilled men. This news is declared by strikers to be a bait to them in hope of breaking the union ranks.

Ice handlers and ice wagon deliverers have refused to supply refrigerators cars of strike affected plants. Without ice the packers are unable to ship meat except for short hauls and cannot export any. Armour has begun using freight cars for shipping meat, but this is admittedly a costly expedient.

Homer D. Call, international secretary of the butchers' organization, said to day that instead of packers disrupting unions disintegration of the meat trust has set in and the combination is broken. He says since the strike began independent plants have secured trade of the trust which the latter never will be able to recover.

ATTACKED BY HEREROS.

Berlin, Aug. 3.—Lieutenant General Trotha, commander-in-chief of the forces of German Southwest Africa, wires that the second company of the second field regiment was attacked at 8 a. m. Aug. 2 at Okaukuei by 150 Hereros. The Hereros were repulsed, leaving fifty dead. Germans lost three wounded, besides two natives killed and one wounded. Trotha had encircled the Hereros in Waterberg hills and it is probable the attack was an effort to break through the German lines.

Sullivan, president of Carleton college, Northfield, Minn., who is in the city, has received notification Miss Mary Reynolds, of Sibley, Iowa, has been appointed by imperial decree tutor in English language to the nephews of the empress of China. Miss Reynolds will sail in October. Miss Reynolds' home will be in Pekin with a missionary family there. She will visit the palace daily.

CATHOLIC SOCIETIES

Subjects Discussed by Various Speakers Before the Federation.

Detroit, Aug. 3.—Rev. T. J. Campbell, of New York, at to night's meeting of the American Federation of Catholic Societies denounced socialism, declaring it "not only incites individual and domestic anarchy, but it professes aims at the ruin of all existing governments," and that it "is absolutely destructive of all human liberty."

Nicholas Gunder, of Dubuque, Iowa, was also one of the speakers. "No, never before," he said, "was the necessity of lay action in the church greater than to day. Could there be greater proof of patriotism than to step into the midst of a people wrestling with the vital problem of the only true and efficient education and to point out advantages of Christian schools and their influence upon the moral and material well-being of the country? Could there be a more opportune moment to emphasize the invaluable power of Catholic doctrine in the marriage question than when the country's noblest sons are clamoring for a solution of the divorce problem, which is a return to Christian and indissoluble marriage? Could there be greater need for strong resolutions on the social question to day than when representatives of strikes, lockouts, boycotts, mob rule and martial law are filling the columns of our dailies?" He said it was not resolutions alone that are needed to day, but Christian leaders of men.

President Mantham spoke on the aims and objects of the federation.

A MISSING MAN.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—Chicago police have been asked to search for Nelson P. G. Wright, aged 26, who disappeared from Mountain Lake, Minn., June 8. The missing man had worked on newspapers in South Dakota, northwestern Iowa and Rush City, Blue Earth City and Jackson, Minn. A few months previous to disappearance he had undertaken Gospel work under the direction of the southern Minnesota M. E. conference. His mother lives at Fort Dodge, Iowa.

New York, Aug. 3.—Populists from a number of states met to night and conferred with Democrats who are opposed to Judge Parker. The meeting was called by James H. Ferris, Illinois chairman of the Populist party. A statement was made on the part of the Democrats after the conference that they had not yet decided upon a line of action. The Populists decided notification ceremonies of their national nominees will take place in New York city about Aug. 18.

Wellsville, Mo., Aug. 3.—J. H. Garber was nominated to night by Republicans of the ninth congressional district to oppose Congressman Champ Clark.

KENT LOOMIS' BODY.

New York, Aug. 3.—The body of P. Kent Loomis, supposed to have lost his life from the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II, of the English coast June 19 last, was brought here on the American liner St. Paul to day.

ADVICES FROM PORT ARTHUR

REFUGEES HAVE ARRIVED AT CHEFOO

Japanese Repulsed in Latest Fighting Near the Besieged City—Russians Forced to Evacuate Halcheng.

Chefoo, Aug. 3.—The steamer Wuchow, just arrived from New Cheung, brings further details of the latest Japanese assaults on Port Arthur. When nearing Chefoo the Wuchow picked up a junk carrying seven men, four women and one boy, who left Port Arthur yesterday. They reported fighting north of Port Arthur occurred on Wolf hill and was sanguinary, resulting in repulse of Japanese. This hill is situated near the railroad and eight trains were kept busy bringing wounded soldiers into the city. Wounded from the east forts reached Port Arthur in all kinds of vehicles, many, however, coming afoot, dragging shattered limbs. Russians unite in declaring the fortress will never fall, but expect that scarcely a building will be left in the city where now there is scarcely a whole pane of glass.

The Wuchow confirms the statement fighting abated during the night of July 28, but had not completely subsided when the refugees left.

The Russian fleet from its anchorage sheltered the advance guard of Japanese after returning from what seems to have been a reconnoitering maneuver.

Chinese arriving here to night say Japanese actually captured two lightly garrisoned forts on the east shore, but abandoned them when their comrades were repulsed from their positions. Russians, however, insist this is untrue.

The forts at Port Arthur bristle with guns, including many eight-inch, but naval artillerymen are alleged to have inflicted the heaviest loss on the Japanese.

Among the prisoners captured during the engagement on Wolf's mountain was a Japanese lieutenant carrying a freshly written letter stating fighting had been severe and Japanese losses heavy. Japanese are now occupying outpost trenches which they captured from Russians.

Halcheng, Aug. 3.—In consequence of desperate fighting the last few days and Japanese turning movement Russians have been compelled to evacuate Halcheng and fall back on Anshunshan.

Tokio, Aug. 3.—Japanese defeated Russians at Simuchang and drove them toward Halcheng in a sharp fight which began Saturday and ended Sunday. Russians left 1,500 dead on the field and lost six guns. Japanese losses about 400. Kuraki telegraphs that in two days' fighting at Yangtuhung and Yushuhintzu his losses were six officers killed and sixteen officers wounded; 550 men killed and wounded.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 3.—In a dispatch to the emperor Kuropatkin says: "Our troops have retired from Halcheng along the road toward Anshunshan. The movement was accomplished in perfect order. The enemy did not disturb us. Terrible heat caused many sunstrokes. There is no serious news from the east front."

Liao Yang, Aug. 3.—Russian attempt to push back a superior force of Japanese from Kuchiatzu July 31 resulted in admitted Russian loss of 1,000 men.

SWEEPING CHANGES

Teamsters Union Abolishes Several Officers—Will Center Power in Hands of Few.

Cincinnati, Aug. 3.—The International Teamsters' union to day made a number of sweeping changes in the personnel of the executive board. The position of National Organizer Albert Young, who a few years ago led the big teamsters' strike in Chicago, was abolished, as were also those of national corresponding secretary and three district organizers and National Auditor N. W. Evans, of Bloomington, Ill. The reason given out for the change is economy, but the charge is made the real reason is an attempt at centralization of power into a few hands.

Delegates from the west and south are in favor of calling out teamsters all over the country handling products of the Chicago beef combine, but conservatives from the central and eastern states have thus far prevented orders being sent further than the one calling out men at St. Louis and East St. Louis, Ill. This division of sentiment is also given as one of the causes for changes made in the executive board.

WEST VIRGINIA DEMOCRATS.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Aug. 3.—Senator Davis, Democratic vice presidential candidate, was given an ovation at to night's session of the Democratic state convention. He made a brief speech thanking the convention for its hearty greeting, and hoped its harmony and enthusiasm would continue until November. He did not discuss national issues because views of the Democratic candidate for president, as well as his own, would be announced in their speeches accepting the nominations on the national ticket. As Davis was concluding some one yelled: "Hurrah for the white man's party," when Davis replied: "I certainly agree with you on the white man proposition." They followed a demonstration that lasted some minutes.

INDIANA DEMOCRATS.

Indianapolis, Aug. 3.—The Democratic state convention nominated the following ticket: Governor, J. G. Kern; lieutenant governor, Warder W. Stevens; Salem; superintendent public instruction, Levi H. Scott; New Albany; judges of the supreme court, Frank E. Gavin, Indianapolis, and George E. Downey, Aurora; attorney general, Walter S. Chambers, New Castle.

APOSTOLIC DELEGATE.

New York, Aug. 3.—Monsignor Falconio, apostolic delegate to the United States, arrived to day from Italy.

APPOINTMENTS

Democratic Campaign Managers Chosen by Chairman Taggart.

Indianapolis, Aug. 3.—Chairman Taggart of the Democratic committee this evening announced the following appointments: National committee: Delancey Nickel, vice chairman, New York; George Foster Peabody, treasurer, New York. Executive committee: W. P. Sheehan, chairman, New York; August Belmont, New York; J. H. McLean, Ohio; United States Senator Martin, Scottville, Va.; ex-United States Senator Smith, Newark, N. J.; T. E. Ryan, Waukegan, Wis. He also announced the executive committee would be advised by Senator Gorman during the campaign.

MICHIGAN DEMOCRATS

Nominate W. H. Ferris for Governor—Former Republican Was His Opponent.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 3.—After it had been generally conceded at noon to day Justus S. Stearns, of Ludington, would be nominated for governor by the Democratic state convention, following Stearns' statement early to day that he had bolted the Republican party and would support the Democratic ticket, both national and state, the convention this evening nominated Woodbridge N. Ferris, of Big Rapids, on the first ballot. The vote was: Ferris, 412; Stearns, 329.

Ever since the last Republican state convention refused to adopt a primary reform resolution, declaring for direct nomination of candidates, on which he made his campaign for the Republican nomination, Stearns has been angling as a possibility for the Democratic nomination upon a primary reform platform.

Saturday it was announced he would accept the nomination. Campaign, of Detroit, strongly opposed Stearns' nomination from the first, contending a Democrat should head the ticket. Stearns' candidacy was supported by the Wayne county delegation and a majority of the Kent delegation, which are strongest numerically in the state. Campaign and his supporters in opposition to Stearns, favored the nomination of Mayor Sweet, of this city. When Stearns announced to day that he would not only support the state Democratic ticket this year, but would also work and vote for the Democratic national ticket, it apparently removed much opposition to him among delegates and it was generally conceded he would be nominated.

Following a conference at noon between Campaign, Stearns and Mayor Sweet it was announced that Sweet's name would not be presented, and this was thought to make sure the nomination of Stearns. The opposition to placing so recent a convert and one who had been so prominent in the Republican ranks at the head of the ticket did not give up, however, and they decided upon W. N. Ferris.

For three hours after the nominating speeches were made excitement in the convention was intense. The fight was practically the old time stalwarts of the party, supporters of Campaign, against the younger element. An attempt to secure adjournment shortly before the ballot for governor was taken failed by a narrow margin. Before Wayne, with 110 votes, second to last on the roll call, was reached on the ballot, it was apparent that even that number added to Stearns' total could not nominate him.

After the nomination for governor, the convention at 7 o'clock recessed till 8.

Another feature of the afternoon session was an address for two hours by ex-United States Senator Charles A. Tappan, of Minnesota, formerly a Michigan man.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 3.—Seven hundred and fifty ballots were taken by the fourth congressional district Democratic convention before adjournment to night and the deadlock remains unbroken.

BRYAN SENDS PARKER MESSAGE

FORMER LEADER HEARTILY WITH TICKET

Edward C. Wall of Wisconsin Bearer of Message to Democratic Presidential Candidate From W. J. Bryan.

Rosper, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Edward C. Wall and wife, of Wisconsin, were guests of Judge Parker to day. They are enroute to Europe.

Wall brought a cordial message direct from W. J. Bryan, assuring Parker he is heartily with the ticket and at the disposal of the national committee to do everything in his power to insure his party's success this fall. Wall said to day:

"While Bryan differs on some questions from delegates to the St. Louis convention he realizes these questions were ruled upon and has accepted the decision. He is satisfied with the platform adopted and thinks, all circumstances considered, the platform is for the best interests of the party at large. There is no attempt to say he has abandoned any principle he advocated in his campaign, but he thinks that if he was right he will eventually be vindicated. That, however, will not turn him from what he believes to be the duty of every Democrat, to support loyally the platform and ticket of the party."

The admiration Bryan has for Parker is not half-hearted. He said to me that Judge Parker's telegram to the convention showed courage and that a man who could so bravely confess his convictions is a suitable standard bearer for the party and one that every Democrat can endorse and support with credit to himself."

Mr. Wall was asked about the report Bryan, while supporting the ticket, would not speak directly in favor of Parker's election. He said emphatically: "That is not true, and I want you to quote me as saying so. Bryan was twice given a commission to lead the Democratic party and at the St. Louis convention he surrendered his position of command. But in surrendering that he abandoned none of his party's faith. Again I want to say he is a Democrat in every sense of the word."

Wall told Parker the breach between the Republican factions in Wisconsin cannot be healed and expressed the opinion that if the Democrats who supported LaFollette two years ago return to the party the Democratic state ticket will be elected. He also said a law enacted four years ago to take advantage of the break in the Democratic party would now work against the Republicans. Under this law the same name cannot appear twice on the ballot. Electors will be placed on the ballot over the ticket of the "stalwarts" or over the LaFollette faction. Whichever faction wins this distinction, said Wall, will get the vote of the party man who always votes the straight ticket, but if a representative of the other faction wants to cast his ballot for the Republican electors and his own state ticket it will be necessary for him to place a cross before the name of every person on the ticket for whom he desires to vote. "Wisconsin must at least be counted as one doubtful state," he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Wall will sail for Liverpool on Friday on the White Star liner Celtic. They will return early enough to enable Wall to do some work for the ticket in Wisconsin.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—An invitation was forwarded to day by western Democratic leaders to former President Cleveland to take the stump for Parker in Illinois in the coming campaign. It is understood Cleveland will take the matter under consideration in a conference with Parker at an early date.

LEADING PAPER AGAINST PARKER

"Daily Bee" Democratic Organ of Sacramento Indorses Roosevelt and Says Parker Will Be Tool of Trusts.

The Daily Bee, the leading Democratic newspaper of Sacramento, California, announces that it will not support the Democratic candidate for president. It endorses the Republican candidate and platform in the following editorial:

"The Bee can say of Theodore Roosevelt that the trusts do not want him, while they do want Parker."

"And it can say of the Republican platform that whenever there was anything to be said on any public issue, it said it. It did not hesitate and stammer and stutter and finally put out a long farrago of words, saying much and meaning nothing; nor did it smother the question altogether, on the ground that there were no votes to be got by injuring people's feelings on either side."

"The Republican platform darts out in the open and says: 'Here I am. You can either take me or leave me.'"

"The Democratic platform darts out sneakily like a Chatham street second-hand clothing dealer, appealing to each voter: 'My opinions are just the same as yours. Vote are yours? Come in and I'll show you a coat that will perfectly fit you. I can fit any man of any size.'"

"In this world, men cannot get all they want, nor half they desire. They must make a choice between what is set before them."

"And the Bee chooses Theodore Roosevelt in preference to Alton Brooks Parker."

"It chooses Roosevelt because, with all his faults, he stands self-reliant in his American manhood, independent, courageous, plucky, conscientious, untrammelled and unpurchased; shackled to no syndicate or corporation; the threat of no criminal coterie waxing fat upon illegal profits; the automatic mouthpiece of no predatory monetary combination evading just laws now on the statute books and murdering honest measures in the womb of legislation."

"It opposes Alton Brooks Parker because he is not a free agent; because he is but as clay in the hands of the potter, and that potter August Belmont; because he is merely the graphophone of Wall street, and what little the people have heard through the machine has unmistakably revealed the voice of his master; because he is to day but the instrument which the trusts hope to use in disciplining Theodore Roosevelt for daring to place the slightest barrier in their way."

"It chooses Theodore Roosevelt because it considers the president should be a man who can be dealt with directly."

"It opposes Alton Brooks Parker because it does not believe the people of this great nation should select as president a Man Friday to any Robinson Crusoe."

"It chooses Theodore Roosevelt because one great issue this time is the MAN, and Roosevelt represents that in all its courage and all its Americanism."

"It opposes Alton Brooks Parker because he is merely the automatic representative of the MACHINE."

"It chooses Theodore Roosevelt because he stands for the rights of the colored race, for justice to the downtrodden, the oppressed, the disfranchised.

"It opposes Alton Brooks Parker because he is put forth on a platform which, cowardly evading the vital issue of the south, not only silently approves the rankest injustice to the negro—an injustice that has the additional demerit of unconstitutionality—but adds insult to injury by denouncing an effort to do justice to the black man as an attempt to kindle anew racial and factional strife."

"It chooses Theodore Roosevelt because the one great and overshadowing issue in the coming campaign will be whether the trusts shall dominate this country, snap their fingers at the laws of the present, and strangle further needed legislation at its birth, or whether the people shall hold these syndicated infamies in check."

"It was on that issue the trusts would have defeated the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt if they could. It is on that basis that they will put money in the field for Alton Brooks Parker, whom they nominated and whom they control."

"Finally the Bee chooses Theodore Roosevelt because he is a FREE Man."

"It opposes Alton Brooks Parker because he is a BONDMAN—tied hand and foot to Wall street and the trusts."

ONE WOMAN AMONG THE THOUSANDS.

We received a letter from Waycross, Ga., from a woman who had been troubled with female complaint for a long time, until she was reduced to almost a shadow. It affected her mind, she could not remember anything, would get confused and so nervous and irritable she could hardly sleep. She described her case as one similar to thousands of other women, and then ends the letter by saying she had gained 18 pounds last month and never felt better in her life, having no trace of her former troubles, slept well and ate her meals with a relish. She commenced the use of Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic just six weeks before she wrote the letter from which we copy the above. This tonic is in tablet form, and should be taken right after meals. It turns the food you eat into strong, rich blood, feeding the nerves and curing disease by making healthy flesh. Sold by all druggists for 75c per box, or 3 boxes for $2. Pale, weak, thin people should use this Tonic. Sold by Lee P. Allcott.

RAILROAD NEWS NOTES

Burlington Stock Received From South Transferred to Alton Here—John W. Daily Improving.

No. 88 on the Alton went through Wednesday in two sections under Cogswell and Spears. The first section had on thirty-one cars of stock and the second section fourteen. Stock picked up by the Burlington south of this city is usually transferred to the Alton and taken out on 88. Yesterday six cars were transferred, mainly from Pisgah and other stock centers. This arrangement has been made on account of the Alton having a more direct route, which enables stock shipped in the afternoon to reach Chicago in time for the opening of the exchange. This heavy movement of livestock is rapidly glutting the Chicago market.

George W. Dye received a letter Wednesday from the chief clerk of John W. Daily, saying that he was much improved and would be out of the hospital not later than the middle of this week.

A gang of Roodhouse section men will be here to day riveting frogs in the Alton yards.

Fast freight No. 83 was delayed here Wednesday by the pulling out of a drawbar.

Passenger trains Nos. 47 and 48 on the Burlington Galesburg division were each thirty minutes late owing to the heavy St. Louis traffic.

J. H. Burnsmier, who has been acting as operator here for a few days, returned to Bloomington Wednesday.

Archie McElhern, who has been acting as brakeman on the C. & A. local No. 119, has been assigned to the St. Louis division. His friends will be glad to hear of his good fortune.

J. U. Hepplewhite has been assigned to the position of brakeman on C. & A. local No. 119.

E. G. Jackman, who has been braking on the St. Louis division, caught No. 86 on this division Wednesday.

W. E. Masters and W. C. Ryder, express messengers of the Adams Express company on the Burlington passengers Nos. 3 and 4 and 47 and 48 resigned Tuesday. Their successors will be expected to do the work of the express company and act as brakemen.

It is proposed in the new time card on the Alton, which goes into effect next Sunday, to pool the passenger trainmen on the runs between Bloomington and St. Louis via Roodhouse. At present three crews handle the runs, between Jacksonville, Roodhouse and St. Louis. In the new time card an additional train will be put on and it is planned to handle this train with the same number of crews. To do this, it will be necessary to run the crews in a pool, all making an equal amount of mileage. The present arrangement suits the crews running into Bloomington perfectly, but those running south of Roodhouse have been kicking in some instances at least, ever since the present card was placed in effect. The forthcoming arrangement may suit the Roodhouse men better.

EVENING COMPANY.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith entertained a company of young people Tuesday evening in honor of their guest, Miss Elizabeth Barriman, of Joliet. The evening passed very pleasantly with games, music and charades. Miss Barriman is an accomplished elocutionist and gave several excellent selections. The lawn was brilliantly decorated with Chinese lanterns, and at 11 o'clock a delightful luncheon was served.

Those present were: Misses Elizabeth Barriman, Bertha Brown, Margaret Bishop, Mary Jackson, Laura Eyles, Mattie Afor, Nellie Mahoney, of Battle Creek, Mich.; Messrs. Len Magill, Charles Afor, Louis Engel, Will Jackson, Lee Smith and Walter Cassell; Mr. and Mrs. James Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jackson. Mrs. Smith was assisted in serving by Misses Bertha Opperman, Frances Goody and Lela Smith.

NEW PUBLICATION.

A new monthly publication issued by a Jacksonville firm has appeared on the scene, and from perusing the August number, just out, we predict for it a splendid future on its merits. It is one of the brightest, cleanest and most original humorous sheets we have ever had on our table, and as it is issued free to everybody the circulation will no doubt be phenomenal. It is called Armstrong's Puzzle and is issued monthly by Armstrong's drug store, southwest corner square, where a free copy can be had for the asking. Get one and enjoy a good laugh.

CALLING PRAIRIE WOLVES.

We struck out across the sandy bed of the lower end of Death valley towards a low range of blue gray hills where Bob said there were lots of coyotes and foxes. It was at least three miles over to the hills, and the shadows of night were falling when we dropped down behind a huge lava-covered boulder in the head of a little draw down which the wild dogs are said to come. Midway down the shallow canon was a patch of green grass, fed, I suppose, by some thermal springs that rose almost to the surface and then sank away again into the myriad underground streams that sap this whole section. Perhaps fifteen minutes passed and then there came, from far across the valley, the call of a wandering coyote—and then happened one of the most utterly novel things I have ever known. Putting his hands to his lips Bob let go a perfect imitation of the coyote's cry: a moment passed, and from some closer point than the last one another wolf answered him. Again and again he called, then another and yet another joined in until a perfect circle of the wild dogs were crying around us, and still they did not discover the deception. I began to fear it was some trick to decoy me into the hands of a band of Pirates, but just then a shadow, only the least bit less black than the surrounding night, swung suddenly around a huge stone some thirty feet beyond Bob, and, neither seeming or smelling us the timid little wolf stood for an instant as if carved in stone. Silent as a snake in the desert grass, yet with a deadly certainty of his prey that made me shiver, the half breed turned over so as to get his right arm free to act. For a moment's space there was a silence, then ever so light a sound, and although I saw nothing, the coyote leaped into the air with a wild cry, turned over once and fell to lie silent in his tracks. Attracted by the cry, another of the band trotted out into a little patch of light cast by the now rising moon, just in time to stop the bullet from my rifle. Of course the report of the gun stopped the sport for the night in that locality, and so we moved over nearer to camp, where Bob, with his bow, killed another coyote, and I, with the rifle, a fox—Harry H. Dunn in "Field and Stream" for August.

Profitable Poultry Breeds.

In answer to a question from a reader as to which is the best all around breed of chickens for laying and market, the Poultry Advocate says: "The general purpose breeds are the Plymouth Rocks, Wyandottes and Rhode Island Reds. If you handle them properly you will certainly be pleased with any one of them. The Plymouth Rocks stand at the head as a standard fowl, with the Wyandottes a close second. It does not matter which variety of these breeds you choose, as that is only a matter of feathers."

Clearing Up Brush Land.

The use of Angora goats in clearing up the cut over lands in northern Michigan has been tried now for several years, and apparently with satisfactory results to those who have invested in them. The lands have been lumbered, the pine cut out, and then left to grow up into brush. Upon these lands the Angora has proved a very efficient aid in clearing them of brush and putting them in shape for cultivation or to grow into grass. Neither sheep nor cattle would do this work as well as the Angora.

Pigsters on Hogs.

A little oliment added to the slop increases its value, and especially where no corn is fed.

To secure a rapid growth the pigs must be born with as much power as possible and vigor with it.

While it takes time to breed up a herd, it is a sure way to accomplish a good one.

Breed the sows just as long as breeding them is profitable. It is unwise to slaughter a good brood sow.

WHY DAVIS WAS NOMINATED.
Democratic Voter—How did the convention come to nominate Davis, a man more than 80 years old? Didn't they know his age?
Democratic Delegate—Some one referred to him as an "octogenarian," and the boys immediately jumped to the conclusion that he was worth eighty millions. That settled it.

THE MAN WHO WHITTLES.
Every community knows the man who sits on a storebox and whittles, finding fault with his neighbor and bragging how much better he could do it than his neighbor, yet who never goes out and does anything right himself. We have all seen that fellow.
He is the prototype of the Democratic party in politics. It has been so for forty years, hand running, and now is starting on a new lap. The platform of the Democratic party, adopted at St. Louis, shows conclusively that the party is not ready to do anything; it is sitting on the storebox abusing the other fellows and bragging about what it would do if it had a chance.

The Republican party began "doing things" in 1861. Every step of progress this country has made since then has been under Republican administration and Republican laws. The party in 1897 had to go back and do them over again, after a brief Democratic administration had undone the labor of years.

The Republican party in its platform tells in plain language what it intends to do. The Democratic party is not specific, but intimates that it will work wonders.

Now, if you had a job of important work you wanted attended to, would you give it to the fellow who has been sitting on the storebox for forty years, whittling, bragging and fault-finding, or would you intrust it to the other fellow who has been "doing things," and doing them right, notwithstanding the fault-finding and nagging of the chap on the storebox.
The American people demand results, not talk. They like the man who delivers the goods. The Republican party is the party of action; it delivers the goods.

The bill-of-lading of the Republican national convention specifies the kind and quality of goods proposed to be delivered. They will be delivered in good order and without shortages or breakage.

And the man on the storebox will sit and whittle and scold and brag for another spell.

INTERCEPTED THE CZAR'S MAIL

A very striking proof of the czar's bondage was recently afforded when the czar dispatched one of his personal favorites, a certain M. Klopoff, into the central provinces of Russia to report on the true condition of affairs there, about which he had previously received official information. He desired to test the accuracy of bureaucratic reports, but he knew that letters from M. Klopoff direct to him would inevitably be opened and suppressed if they contained statements of which officialdom disapproved. In order to avoid this espionage, he ordered M. Klopoff to mail his reports in small envelopes of the pattern used for private letters, not straight to the palace, but to the address in St. Petersburg of a certain General Hesse. General Hesse was entrusted with the secret, and he undertook personally to carry all the letters received from M. Klopoff to the czar. M. Klopoff went on his mission, but out of eighteen letters which he posted to General

Hesse for the czar only five reached their destination. A strong ruler would doubtless make a vigorous effort to liberate himself from this tyranny, but the czar is essentially a weak man. The unhealthy, pale, almost gray color of his complexion betrays his want of physical health and strength, while the amazing inconsistencies of his reign indicate successive surrenders to conflicting influences. It is characteristic of his weakness that he never strikes out a new line of thought or action on his own initiative, and that his decision on any given question of policy is nothing more than the choice which of two or more courses recommended to him by different advisers shall be followed. He is never a leader like the German emperor, but is continually being led by some influential man or group of men.—Success.

JUDGE HIGBEE WILL PRESIDE

Has Consented to Hear Famous Murder Case—Trial Will Be Called Sept. 12.

Pittsfield, Aug. 3.—Judge Higbee of Pittsfield to day consented to hear the famous Strube murder case and the trial will be called at Havana Sept. 12.
After the convening of court yesterday for the August term, Judge Mehan of Mason City announced from the bench that he will be unable to serve in the case. In explanation, Judge Mehan stated that the arguments for continuance had been before him and that so many details of the crime had been exposed in the process that he felt himself incapable of acting as judge. A consultation was held by the attorneys for the prosecution and defense and Judge Higbee was decided upon.

As Judge Higbee will not be free from his bench before Sept. 12, a further continuance in the case will be necessary. Fred Strube will be brought into court Aug. 15 and a continuance granted. H. W. Masters, Strube's attorney, may interpose some objection to the new arrangement since it will interfere with the term of court in Fulton county. His answer has not yet been received.

Bloomington—Actual work on the Bloomington-Pontiac and Joliet interurban has been begun. Monday morning a force of men and teams with scrapers began work on the grading for the same on what is known as the old Beach farm, now owned by the Stroud estate, just north of the coal shaft at Pontiac. Tuesday morning seventeen teams with scrapers were at work doing the preliminary grading. Thirty men were also employed. These are all Pontiac people and it is the intention of the Arnold Electric Station company, who have the contract, to hire as much local help as possible. They have a large number of additional scrapers and will put these to work as fast as teams apply for work. At noon there was completed about two blocks of grading and the work is progressing rapidly in the direction of Dwight.

Marion, Ohio, Aug. 3.—A 10-year-old son of W. H. Curt, of Prospect, is dead, a 2-year-old daughter may not recover, and an 8-year-old son of Albert Benedict Carlington, who, with his parents, is a guest at the Curt home, is in a precarious condition as a result of eating pork. Attending physicians say the meat was improperly cured.

WOMAN'S COLUMN

"Make the best of life and life will do its best for you."

When woman loses her beauty she begins to take care of it.

You can't catch happiness by crying for it. Tears make mighty poor bait.

An almost invisible cement for mending glass is made of kieselguhr boiled in spirits of wine.

A man some times falls in love with his wife all over again when a rich uncle dies and leaves her a fortune.

A good many girls do not make themselves helpful around the house for fear they might get in the habit of it.

That soul is truly happy who has some one to think sweetly of, some one to talk sweetly to and some one to love dearly.

Much beauty with little wit makes friends, but retains few, while little beauty with much cleverness keeps friends always.

Time is money, but the woman who is always going to be "ready" in just a minute doesn't seem to think it is drawing interest.

The girl who is ashamed to be caught washing dishes by her beau is not in her right mind. She ought to be proud of it.

A woman who was lately divorced is quoted as saying: "There are too many men in the world to be unhappy with one of them."

Why is a baby like wheat? Because it is first cradled, then thrashed and afterwards becomes the flour (flour) of the family.

Grass widows may, of course, be blue. But I have never seen (No more has any of you) A single one that's green.

There is one reason for men being so well satisfied. The biggest and bravest of them can be completely tamed by a mere midiget of a woman.

At Washington five women are still drawing pensions as widows of men who served in the war of the revolution, which ended 120 years ago.

In order to secure funds to aid the hospital in making improvements, the society women of Elkhart, Ind., shined shoes on the street at $1 per pair.

Think of your own faults the first part of the night, when you are awake, and of the faults of others the latter part of the night when you are asleep.

ARRESTS MADE.
Chicago, Aug. 3.—Police have arrested ten men in efforts to run down the bandits who held up the Illinois Central train at Harvey Monday night. As far as known none of the prisoners have been identified.

Covering the Silo.
Various ways have been tried of covering the silage after the silo was filled to prevent the spoiling of the silage on top, but it has been found that nothing is better or less expensive than to put on water enough to thoroughly wet the top of the silage and have enough so that it runs down between the silage and the sides of the silo. Many avoid all loss from damage on top by beginning to feed immediately after filling, thus giving it no time to damage. The feeding should always be done from the top, taking about two inches from the entire top each day. If the feeding is done too slowly, and part of the surface is left exposed to the air for two or three or more days, then the stock will have partially damaged silage all the time.

—C. P. Goodrich Before Wisconsin Farmers' Institute.

Grass In the Orchard.
Horticulturists and fruit growers have long known that grasses are injurious to young apple trees, but it seems that they were wrong in attributing the injury to interference with the air, the water and the food supply of the trees. Carefully conducted experiments and observation at the Woburn experimental fruit farm in England have shown, however, that there is some direct or indirect product of grass growth that has an active poisonous effect on the roots of the trees. It is also suggested that the so called exhaustion of the soil by certain plants, preventing the subsequent growth of other plants in the same ground, may be due really to some poisonous product left by the first plants.

Developing the Boar.
F. D. Spaulding at a meeting of Kansas swine breeders said: "At weaning time the boar pigs should be separated from the gilts and if possible put into a pasture with plenty of water, shade and grass. This pasture should be away from any other lot or pasture where other hogs run. It would be better to have all the pigs in one lot than to have them in adjoining pastures. By being together they become acquainted, but if separated by a fence they will fight through it, become restless, stop eating and go to fretting or rooting. When they get to that state the only thing to do is to put them in a small pen, each one separate from others, where they cannot see or hear other hogs."

Cowpeas for the Soil.
The plan of sowing cowpeas to occupy the soil after harvesting fall wheat or oats is as good now as ever, says Rural New Yorker. With a favorable season the cowpeas make a large growth and can be plowed under in time for another crop of grain or grass seeding. The soil is left in much better shape than it would be if left in stubble and weeds. The trouble about the plan this year is the difficulty in obtaining cowpea seed. There seems to be little if any left in the country. We are thinking of using white beans in place of the peas.

Leland Hotel of Springfield Will Be Remodeled—Republicans Made Nomination in Thirtieth Senatorial District.

Virginia—In the Republican convention for the Thirtieth senatorial district, Lewis Zinger, of Tazewell county, was nominated on the sixty-seventh ballot for representative, and J. P. Moore, of Schuyler county, for senator. The candidates against Zinger were D. McNeill, of Cass; C. S. Johnson, of Brown, and J. P. Moore, of Schuyler county.

Springfield—Horace Wiggins, of the Leland hotel, has announced that all negotiations for the lease of the hotel are off, and that preparations are now being made for a remodeling and general repairing of the structure.

"Mr. Neipp did make us an offer," said Mr. Wiggins, "but it was not satisfactory, and the negotiations ended some time ago so far as we are concerned. The hotel is not for sale or lease, and we have decided to make some extensive repairs and improvements. The plumbing will be overhauled and much new work installed. The office will be changed somewhat. The plans are not yet perfected, but the work will be done this fall."

GROUND BROKEN FOR ROUTT COLLEGE

Structure Will Be Modern in Every Way—Approximate Cost Is $50,000—To Be Completed by January 1, 1905.

Excavating was begun Monday for the erection of Routt college, for which the contract was let some time since. The site is the lot on East State street, just west of the Routt club building.

The dimensions of the entire piece of property, including the lot upon which the Routt club building is situated are 204 feet front on East State street, by a depth of 404 feet. The club will not be disturbed, as the new building will be erected on the lot adjacent to the Illinois Woman's college property.

The structure will front on East State street for 100 feet, and will have a depth of sixty feet. It will consist of three full stories and a basement and will be furnished in an ornamental fashion. The foundation will be of Bedford stone and the trimmings around the windows and doors will be of the same material. The superstructure is to be of a mahogany colored brick, similar to that being used in the addition to the main building of the School for the Deaf.

The basement of the building will be floored with concrete throughout and will contain a fully equipped gymnasium, tub and shower baths, toilet rooms and other conveniences, in addition to the heating plant and coal room. All of the appliances will be of the best obtainable.

The second floor will be divided by an eight foot corridor, running east to west. It will have a study hall, five class rooms and two wardrobes. All will be fitted in the most modern fashion.

On the second floor will be an auditorium with a seating capacity of about 400. Opening into this will be several anterooms.

The third floor will be divided into halls for society purposes.

No provision for dormitories will be made in the new building, but the Routt club will be used as an annex.

The plans for the building were prepared by H. J. Schlacks, of Chicago. The general contract for the carpenter and brick work has been let to John Wolke, of this city.

The stone work will be done by F. W. Menke & Sons, of Quincy. Contracts for the roofing, plumbing and heating have not yet been let. The approximate cost of the building will be $50,000.

The contract calls for the completion of the work by Jan. 1, 1905. It has not yet been determined who will constitute the teaching force.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When it is free of dandruff, it grows luxuriantly.

Hair, dandruff and dandruff cure, are the sticky or irritating affections that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ, and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It always itching instantly, makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. 50 PER CENT OF THE ADULT POPULATION SUFFER FROM ONE RAINFUL AILMENT.

Think what this means. Imagine the amount of misery that exists and is endured simply because people do not know there is an absolute cure.

The only way to cure any complaint is to remove the cause. There are very few diseases or ailments that can be cured by external application—and piles is not one of them. Piles can be cured; the treatment must, however, be internal, for the cause of piles is an internal disorder of the liver or the bowels. Even catarrh of the stomach and bowels can be cured by DR. PERRIN'S PILE SPECIFIC. This Internal Remedy. Here is an instance of what this practically infallible remedy will do:

Dr. C. A. Perrin, Helena, Mont.—Dear Sir: I have never finished the former bottle of Perrin's Pile Specific and am practically well. My case was one which most physicians would have pronounced incurable, as I was afflicted with a dysentery and compelled to go to the bathroom from three to five times each day and each time would bleed from one-half to one teaspoonful. I had to resort to bandages and absorbent cotton to check the flow of blood, and now the past ten or twelve days there has been no sign of bleeding and my appetite is good; have gained ten pounds in weight and feel like a new lease of life has been given me.

Very truly yours,

T. R. HARRIS, Yerington, Nev.

Dr. Perrin's Pile Specific is sold by all reliable druggists at $1.00 the bottle, under an absolute guarantee to refund the money should this great internal remedy fail to cure.

Value of Growing Plants in the Treatment of the Sick.

"Growing plants, and especially odoriferous flowering plants, are of the greatest value in the treatment of the sick," said Dr. Frances Bartlett of Philadelphia.

"As long as the plants are kept moist, they will diffuse moisture, and they undoubtedly have the power to produce ozone. Some plants will vaporize the atmosphere to the amount of three times their own weight in a day. In this way the atmosphere of a sickroom can be made of the greatest benefit. The only dangerous plants to place in a sickroom are those which give off unpleasant odors. Why send consumptives to Colorado to benefit by the climate when we can bring that climate into their homes by the simple expedient of having growing plants in their rooms? Care should be exercised in regard to cut flowers. They should not be left in the rooms at night. They throw off carbon dioxide, but during the daytime the amount of oxygen they produce neutralizes the harmful effects."

Worth Knowing.

A few drops of turpentine in the stove polish will prevent rust. A teaspoonful of chloride of lime in one quart of water will remove mildew from clothes.

Put salt in the water with which you clean matings and straw baskets.

When preserving, wash your jars in strong soda water, especially if they have been used before.

A piece of charcoal in the water in which you put cut flowers will keep them fresh much longer.

A good carpet cleaner can be made by using half a pound of borax, half a pound of washing soda, one 10 cent bar of good white soap. Shave the soap in small pieces and boil all together.

Egg Cooked in Tomato.

A firm fresh tomato of sufficient size is selected, the top is cut off and the inside is scooped out just enough to contain a whole egg. The egg is cracked into a cup without the yolk being broken and then poured into the tomato. Salt and pepper are added and the tomato is put into the oven. When the egg is cooked the tomato will be found just right also. My hostess, who lived for many years in Portugal, told me this was a Portuguese method, and I strongly commend it to people who like eggs and tomatoes and who are tired of the ordinary tomato omelet.

Household Hints.

Never hang a mirror where the sun's rays will fall upon it. The sun acts upon the mercury and clouds the glass.

It is not generally known, but to prevent cakes from burning place a little bran at the bottom of the tins. This will save a lot of grumbling and vexation.

To clean forks quickly take a thin piece of firewood, damp one end with water, then rub in dry brick dust. Rub the forks well with this, which will remove any stains instantly without soiling or hurting the hands.

Save the Housemaid's Knees.

Better than bits of old carpet or bagging to save the knees of the housemaid or to place under a pail are soft hand knit rugs. These can be made of old aprons, gowns that have outlived their usefulness and even discarded underwear. Cut into strips, join flat by letting the ends overlap and knit or crochet with big bone needles. This makes admirable pastime for children on rainy days, when they have tired of toys and books, or, falling such assistants, one can keep a bit of such knitting on hand for odd minutes.

Coffee a Disinfectant.

"Drink plenty of coffee if there is sickness around you," said a physician. "Coffee is a good preventive of typhoid fever and cholera."

"This has been proved. Cholera germs and typhoid germs have been thrown into coffee and the aromatic drink has not once failed to kill the germs within an hour."

Hence, amid contagious conditions do not neglect, among other precautions, to drink three cups of strong coffee at each meal."

Kitchen Apron.

An excellent kitchen apron is made of unbleached muslin. This is superior to the gingham and seersuckers more generally used, for the reason that it can be thoroughly boiled and thus disinfected of all possible microbes. A few washings give it a snowy whiteness, which adds very much to the daintiness of the cook's appearance.

Care of Table Silver.

It is said if table silver is allowed to stand covered with thick sour milk for half an hour it will only need washing and rinsing to be bright as new.

PEOPLE OF THE DAY

Prominent in Politics.

Thomas Taggart, who was indorsed for the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee at the meeting of that body in St. Louis, is one of the leading Democrats of Indiana.

THOMAS TAGGART.

Born in Ireland in 1856, Mr. Taggart came to this country in 1861 with his parents, who settled in Xenia, O.

In 1877 he went to Indianapolis, where he has since resided. His political career began in 1886, when he was elected auditor of Marion county. Four years later he was re-elected, and in 1892 he became chairman of the Democratic state committee. In the same year he was chosen a member of the national committee. Mr. Taggart was mayor of Indianapolis from 1895 to 1901.

His Rolling Passion.

Willett F. Cook, advertising manager of Judge, tells the following story of an incident that happened at Schenectady park recently, says the New York Times. In a spirited baseball game the first baseman was knocked senseless by the swift running of one of the players. For some time it was thought the man was actually dead. Relays of ball players were employed in working the arms of the prostrate man. After considerable time he began to breathe feebly. When consciousness returned he slowly opened his eyes and remarked:

"Has any one got a cigarette?" "Great Scott!" said one of the bystanders. "He has just come from the jaws of death and now asks for a nail for his coffin."

His Hands Were Crossed.

A short time ago the Rev. Thomas R. Slicer of New York was on what may be termed a parlor car missionary trip. His itinerary included Atlanta, where a large congregation turned out to hear him. He had just finished his sermon, and as the congregation sang the last hymn Mr. Slicer stood in the pulpit with his hands folded on the open Bible.

As the last verse was reached and the New York clergyman was beginning to think of the benediction he glanced at the page of the Bible open before him, and the first line he saw was:

"The fool hath crossed his hands."—New York Times.

Caught the Professor.

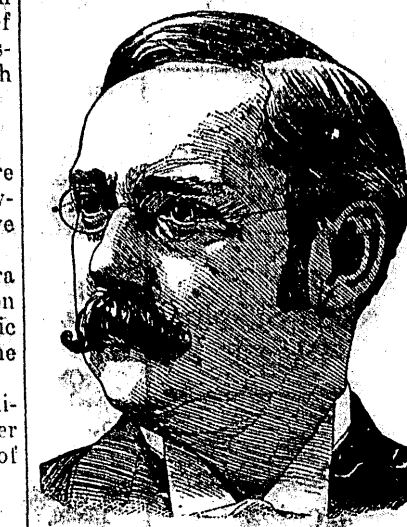

Professor Drum of Bucknell university, Lewisburg, Pa., went on a fishing excursion Memorial day. While on his way home he fell in with an affable stranger, who, seeing the professor's fishing tackle, asked him, "What luck?"

The doctor showed his catch, whereupon the stranger remarked:

"Mphm. I'm Fish Warden Burkley. You're fishing out of season. And the day's outing cost the professor something close to $50.—Omaha Bee.

Engineer of the Panama Canal.

John Findley Wallace, who was appointed chief engineer of the construction of the Panama canal by President Roosevelt, was selected for the position because of his well known skill in the management of large bodies of men as well as for his eminent ability as an engineer.

Mr. Wallace is a native of Fall River, Mass., and is fifty-two years of age. He was educated at the Monmouth university of Illinois and began his career of civil engineer as a rodmans in the employ of the Quincy railroad in 1869. Since then, with the exception of five years spent in the United States engineering corps, he has been in railroad service. He became chief engineer of the Illinois Central in 1891 and later was made general manager. His salary as chief engineer of the Panama canal will be $25,000 a year.

FOR THE CHILDREN

A Homemade Ball.

There are many kinds of balls for sale in the shops, but most of them are too hard for ordinary hand playing. The writer of this has never seen anything to equal the balls he used to make for himself when he was a boy, and he wants to tell the other boys how he did it.

Get a perfectly round orange and cut the peel into even quarters, numbering them at one end so as to be able to put them together again in their proper order.

Ask your mother or your sister for a pair of discarded kid gloves with long wrists, and out of these wrists cut four pieces exactly like the four pieces of orange peel. Number them as you did the pieces of peel and with linen thread sew over and over three seams, thus putting the four pieces together, but leaving one seam open. This is the cover for your ball.

Get a solid rubber ball about three-quarters of an inch in diameter, and on it wind the common woolen yarn of which stockings are made. You can buy the yarn at a shop, or if you can get an old stocking, unravel it out. Do the winding evenly, so as to keep the ball perfectly round, and try it now and then to see if it is large enough for your cover. You must make it so that it will fit in the cover exactly, and then you draw the remaining edges together and sew them over and over as you did the other seams.

The boy who uses a ball of this kind will never willingly use any other. It is plenty hard enough and yet is soft to the touch, and the rubber center gives it all the needed bounce.

The Magic Fish.

Cut a large fish out of very stout writing paper.

In the center of it cut a small round hole, and from this hole cut a narrow slit extending straight out to the tail.

Put a few drops of oil in the round hole and then quickly but carefully lay the fish flat on the water, making sure that no water reaches the upper surface of the fish.

The fish will then be seen to move slowly along through the water, although it has not received the slightest push.

The explanation is that the oil which you have dropped into the little round hole tries to expand.

As the paper does not absorb it quickly it starts to spread along the narrow slit that you have cut in the fish from the hole to the tail. And in doing this it pushes the fish forward.

Try this experiment, boys and girls.

Brother Jonathan.

Did any of you little people ever know where this nickname of the people of the United States originated?

Well, one time during the Revolutionary war, when the army was in sore need of supplies and ammunition, at a council that was held General Washington demanded funds, which were, however, unavailable. At length Washington said in despair, "Well, we must consult Brother Jonathan about it," referring to Governor Jonathan Trumbull of Connecticut. Now, it happened that the government was so successful in raising the necessary money that after that when there were any difficulties to be met, the soldiers used to say, "Go to Brother Jonathan." And after awhile when the origin of the phrase was lost, the expression still was popular and is in use at the present day.

A Pet Donkey.

When I was a boy I had a donkey which was a great favorite. I could make it lie down like a circus horse whenever I chose, and stand up on its hind legs with its forefeet on my shoulders. It was so intelligent that it could lift the latch and open a door either from the inside or out. I have many times known it to open its stable door, and coming across to our house, also open that door leading to the room in which we had breakfast and push its head between my brother and myself and beg for a piece of bread or sugar. It used to move its large ears backward and forward in a very knowing way and could calculate time with wonderful accuracy.—Cassell's Little Folks.

TRAIN ROBBER ARRESTED.

St. Paul, Aug. 3.—John Cristle was arrested at Hope, N. D., today, accused of being implicated with George Hammond in the Bearmouth, Mont., train robbery. Officials allege he confessed his part in the holdup and when captured had $700 on his person, besides some diamonds taken from the express safe.

READ THIS.

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 24, 1901.—For twelve years I have suffered from sweet diabetes and have spent hundreds of dollars with various doctors, with but little benefit. I was recommended to try a bottle of Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and with cheerful testimony to the public that it did me more good than all things else put together and am altogether a different man. I have persuaded many of my friends to try it.

HISTORIC GRAVES

Revolutionary Soldiers Lie Buried on Drury Farm East of City—Place Visited by Party Wednesday.

Buried long years ago and lying beneath a growth of timber and underbrush on the farm of Frank E. Drury, east of the city, are believed to be the mortal remains of Henry Edwards and Mr. Scott, two Illinois pioneers and patriots of the revolutionary war.

Mr. George Moore, who resides west of the Drury farm, and Mr. Drury have been interested in more fully identifying the location of the graves, and Wednesday afternoon Dr. J. W. Reeman, Dr. C. M. Brown, George E. Sybrant and H. H. Bancroft drove to the Moore farm, where they were pleasantly entertained, and later, in company with Mr. Drury, endeavored to locate accurately the graves of these early pioneers.

The life history of these two men is practically unknown and the few facts regarding their career have been handed down by tradition in the neighborhood where they spent their last days.

Mr. Moore well remembers having been taken to the spot where they lie buried by his father, Dr. Edwin Moore, when a boy 6 or 7 years of age. At that time the graves were enclosed in a pen made of mulberry rails, arranged in the shape of the once common stake and rider fence. The fact that two soldiers of the revolution were buried in the neighborhood was not regarded with special significance by Mr. Moore, the boy, and as the responsibilities of life were assumed the fact seldom occurred to him.

The activity of the government in recent years in marking the graves of revolutionary soldiers and the work of patriotic societies which have preached the doctrine of preserving historic spots for the benefit of future generations, has led Mr. Moore to take a new interest and he hopes that his present effort will be fruitful in securing a suitable marker to designate the graves of these heroes of colonial days.

Mr. Frank Drury remembers the graves as having been upon the farm ever since his recollection, and he was frequently told by his father, the late Charles Drury, that the graves marked the last resting place of two revolutionary soldiers who once resided in the neighborhood.

In conversation with a Journal representative Wednesday, Mr. Moore told the fragments of history which he had learned regarding these men. "Henry Edwards formerly resided on the 100 acres now owned by Jud Boston, and also the forty-five acres now a part of the Drury farm west of the house. With a companion named Scott he was supposed to have reached Morgan county in the early twenties. Both had been revolutionary soldiers and had fought under General Wayne in the Carolinas.

"Edwards built a cabin on the 160 acres and lived in it with his family for several years. One of his daughters married a Haguade and twelve sons were born to this union. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Haguade were pupils of mine when I taught country school, but could only attend in the summer time, as their parents were too poor to furnish them with sufficient clothing to come during the winter.

"Mrs. Haguade grew the flax from which their rude and scanty clothing was made, and from the flax so grown carded and wove it into garments.

"After many years the family removed to Iowa and I have not heard of them since. Some four years ago a girl, by the name of Haguade, who came from Iowa, and who was blind, deaf and dumb, was here at the Blind institution giving an exhibition of her remarkable powers and it may be possible that the girl was a descendant of the family that formerly resided in this county.

"When 6 years of age I was sent to accompany the widow of Mr. Scott a portion of the way from my father's home to the home of Mr. Peter Edwards (no relation to the soldier) who resided a little west of the site of the present Drury residence. Mrs. Scott was at the time on her way back from the farm of Jesse Ruble, where she had been on business connected with securing a revolutionary widow's pension. I was to show her that part of the way with which she was not familiar. The present Morton road was unknown then and we followed what was nothing but a bridle path along the bank of briar fork of Mauvaisterre creek.

"I do not know that Mrs. Scott ever received a pension, but that fact could be ascertained from the records in Washington.

"The graves were once marked with stones, but of recent years they became removed from their original location."

Mr. Moore related a remarkable coincidence that grew out of his trip with Mrs. Scott. When he was returning after having accompanied her a part of the way he encountered in the narrow foot path which he was following, a spreading viper. The snake lay right in the center of the path and as their bite is deadly poisonous, he dared not attempt to pass, and he was too timid to kill the snake. Finally, however, following its deliberate nature, it crawled into the grass and Mr. Moore continued toward home.

A short time ago while trying to locate this old path, which has practically disappeared with the course of time, when he reached what he believed to be a part of the old path, what should appear to greet him but another viper. This time he dispatched the reptile in short order.

"It was related of Mr. Edwards that when he went to fight for his country he led a cow along, as he was very fond of milk, and feared army rations might not always agree with him. In one of the campaigns of Mad Anthony, rations not only grew short in quality, but also in quantity and the soldiers seizing the opportunity nearest at hand kidnapped Edwards' cow and distributed the beef. Edwards was very indignant and reported the matter to the officers. Finally the case reached General Wayne himself, who, after finding that he could not shed any light on the subject dismissed it with the remark that they were all good fighters, which seemed to prove a happy solution to the quarrel."

As a result of his investigation Wednesday, Mr. Moore feels doubly confident of the fact that he has located nearly the exact spot of the graves. Lying within a small radius were many broken pieces of mulberry stakes, and as the mulberry trees on the land are all young it seems conclusive that these fragments are the remains of what was formerly the inclosure.

While Mr. Moore and Mr. Drury have known of the location of the graves all these years, with the march of time evidence of their existence has been disappearing more and more and unless something is done soon to appropriately mark them the names of two heroes will be lost to history. It will be an act of patriotism on the part of the man or men who fittingly carry out such a project.
